

CAANS/ACAEN
Annual meeting, 26 - 27 May 2007
Room COMM 12, University of Saskatchewan

Saturday 26 May

- 9.00 President's words of welcome
9.15 - 9.45 Augustinus Dierick (University of Toronto): "Andriessen, Vestdijk, Wittgenstein: Music and the Ineffable."
9.45 - 10.15 Mary Eggermont (Calgary): "2007 P.C. Hooft prizewinner Maarten Biesheuvel in Canada in 1992."
10.15 - 10.45 Coffee
10.45 - 11.15 Linda Feldman (University of Windsor): "'In the land of guilty memories:' Jews and Muslims in Ian Buruma's Murder in Amsterdam."
11.15 - 11.45 Gerrit Gerrits (Acadia University): "Clara Feyeoena van Raesfelt, a late 18th-century (amateur) classicist."
11.45 - 13.15 Lunch
13.15 - 13.45 Beert Verstraete (Acadia University): "The defence of Epicureanism in Erasmus' Colloquies: from the Banquet Colloquies to the Epicureus."
13.45 - 14.45 Hermina Joldersma (University of Calgary): "De stede, the 1475 Flemish translation of Christine de Pizan's Cité des dames."
14.45 - 15.15 Coffee
15.15 - 16.45 Annual business meeting
19.00 dinner (place to be announced)

Sunday May 27

- 9.15 - 10.15 Guest speaker: Ton Hagen (Katholieke Universiteit Nijmegen): "Gaaf de Nederlandse standardtaal door?"
10.15 - 10.45 Coffee
10.45 - 11.15 Ingrid Steiner (Waterloo): The cultural heritage of Dutch and Swiss emigrants to Canada.
11.15 - 11.45 Timothy Nyhof (Dutch-Canadian Society of Manitoba): The Dutch Catholic settlement in Plummas, MB
11.45 - 12.15 Michiel Horn (York University): The trials of literary translation (Dutch-English).